Proudly dedicates the following pages to those individuals and leaders . . . of our newly incorporated city, who have strived selflessly to build the idealistic foundation for our future generations to follow.

We salute them for their foresight . . . and vision . . . and in laying the basic pattern. When we hear the phrase . . . "long-range planning" . . . we tingle with anticipation, for even now we have viewed the changes in population . . . and growth . . . with awe.

When the silhouettes of industry cast a shadow on our very doorsteps . . . when we see the workers daily creating our future . . . when we sense the equality of the pure democracy that surrounds us . . . we realize even more that Henderson is truly a city of . . .

'Industry and Ideals'

This, our theme, is a tribute not only to the 'pioneers' of Henderson, but to the seniors, as well . . .

The city cautiously took its first shaky step in 1953 . . . the year of its inauguration. Another memorable event that year was the beginning of the high school careers of 140 members of the class of 1957.

Through four fleeting years, we have witnessed the growth of the city . . . and we have seen it assume confident individuality.

The purpose of this book is to record permanently, through words and pictures, our objective views of the 'birth of a city' . . . in harmonious correlation with the lifeblood of our community, industry.

We seriously hope that it carries our message with clear conviction.

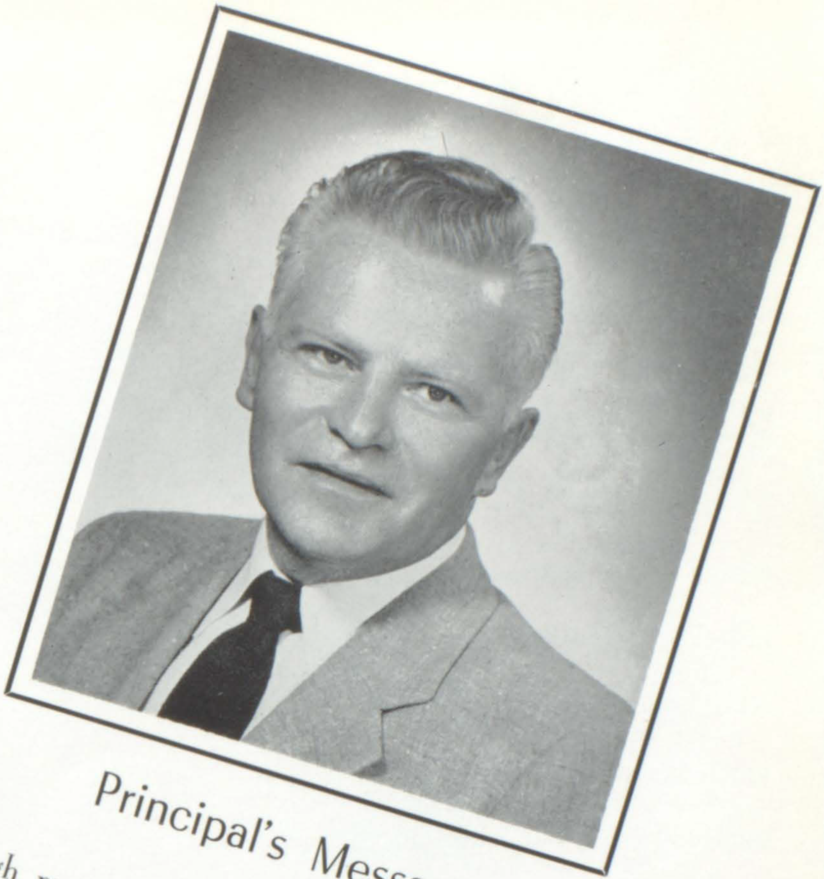
BASIC HIGH SCHOOL LIBRAR
HENDERSON, NEVADA



Principal's Message

Through many and varied media of endeavor the class of 1957 has helped Basic High School gain stature and recognition as an outstanding school. Perhaps the greatest contribution your group made was expressed by the loyalty which you gave to your school. This loyalty was loudly expressed when you were freshmen, and, as you progressed toward graduation, it grew and matured until you manifested it by your actions in accepting the responsibility for promoting the all-around welfare of your school.

It is the sincere hope of your teachers and administrators that this progression toward maturity of ideas and ideals will continue throughout your lives; thus, each one of you will achieve the success and happiness which comes with continuous improvement.

John A. Dooley

Principal

leaders

The section following carries our message of appreciation and admiration for the 'leaders' of our school . . . instructors, student officials, and school board members who have guided our education and extra-curricular activities with patience and understanding.

As our community depends upon the qualifications of well-trained and expert handling by the city officials, so our school rests upon their judgement and beliefs . . .

The confidence of the student body in their abilities proves that they have well earned the title . . . 'leaders'.

"Citizens of all communities in the United States are being alerted by every communication media to critically examine their schools. The citizens of our progressive community recognized this need five years ago. They acted with a resultant $3,000,000 school building program including the new $1,500,000 Basic High School.

"A community makes the financial sacrifice to its new schools with the hope that its children will take full advantage of the educational opportunities it provides. In this, the citizens of Henderson have not been disappointed. They are proud of your high standards of scholastic, extra-curricular and social achievements. All these have been accepted with deep gratitude and pride by all citizens of the Henderson community.

"Congratulations, students of Basic High School . . . you are proving in rich measure your ideal, 'Basic, the best high school in the West.' "

These are the workers that are known by everyone, yet little is heard about.

They are the people that literally keep the operations of our high school operations running smoothly . . . and, outstanding commercial students now can take an active part in office work, giving them practical experience while still learning.

School nurses, secretaries, and the student workers . . . all of them busily executing daily chores that are so imperative to the school's functioning.

Principal

The burdens of many issues that effect our school lives come into the office of these two leaders . . . and their wisdom in making decisions must be at a peak, always.

Mr. John Dooley, as one of his many duties, advises the student council, and is present at all meetings to hear the complaints and wishes of the students. His goal, then, is to carry them into effect, if the thoughts are constructive, and will benefit the majority.

administration

Mr. Estes McDoniel, vice-principal, is in charge of our yearly sports activities, among other things . . . he schedules the dates, and keeps the athletic department efficiently running.

Mr. McDoniel also maintains a firm but understanding rule over the attendance problems that arise from time to time.

Students of Basic are, in a sense, citizens . . . for, in our school life,
we are allowed the privileges of governing ourselves, electing officers and representatives to voice our opinions . . .

Our day of work . . . consists of hours spent learning . . . becoming further educated . . . with a dream, perhaps, of bettering our future.

Democracy is shown . . . by fierce, competitive spirit displayed
not only in contests, but between classes . . . and,
most of all,
we share a pride in our attractively new campus and atmosphere that will become lasting memory in future years.

School started, and during the first semester, we will remember the football games . . . homecoming . . . the weird title of the senior class play . . . and always the combined feelings of anticipation and dread at the thought of graduation.

Second semester was a rush of preparation for the oncoming spring . . . the junior carnival . . . senior ball . . . 'Ditch' (?) Day . . . baccalaureate . . . finally, graduation and the following senior party.

Yes, it was a memorable year . . . and it went so quickly!

Freshmen timidly entered the halls of Basic at the beginning of the year with the orders of the seniors ringing in their ears—but soon they became an integral and secure part of school.

Assemblies gave the lower classmen a chance to show respect for their elders by standing until all seniors were seated . . . and initiation came for many when clubs unmercifully gave all an opportunity to join.

Freshmen presented a successful "Frolic" . . . and an assembly representing the top talent of their class . . . besides enthusiastically supporting all school events.

The loud cheers of the 225 members of the class of 1960 echo throughout school . . . and carry a note of pride and conviction at being the largest class in Basic's short history.

organizations

The outlet for the enthusiasm and pep in our school years is sparked by the organizations.

As in the city, clubs of all types provide opportunities for developing leadership abilities.
They also give every student a chance to participate in the extra-curricular activities of their choice.

We grow emotionally by participation and we learn the social importance of getting along with people!

Linda Mack
President

Commercial club has conducted a very active calendar during this school year, beginning with their Halloween assembly, and terminating with their annual mother-daughter tea.

Selling ice cream during lunch hour has made this group financially able to help a needy family at Christmas; and to assist the Commercial department in many ways, such as providing every student taking shorthand and typing with Today's Secretary magazines.

The May L. Carpenter chapter of the National Quill and Scroll is composed of Basic's journalistic honor students . . . The purpose of the organization is to unite the school's future newspaper editors, writers and workers and to help them better understand the functions of a newspaper. Main projects throughout the year were candy sales, formal initiation of new members and an annual press banquet.

This domestic-minded organization started out the year with flying colors by initiating a good-grooming award, presented at their annual F.H.A. Roundup held here this season.

Other major projects were a civil defense program, an outstanding "Sweetheart Reverse" dance, held in February, and their initiation of officers.

Under the able advisorship of Miss Patsy Terry, the Future Homemakers of America have definitely made this a very successful 1956-57.

The varsity squad of the Basic Wolves of 1956-57 put in a year that displayed genuine sportsmanship and commendable ability in football.

During the season practices, the coaches chose the captains for each game according to "desire" and "hustle" during the week. At the end of the season, the team elected honorary captains from the ten that had served: Cannon, Wilson, and Williams tied for this honor.

Coach Razmic and Coach Smith both took great pride in the seasonal positions our boys took on all-state team:

Bernard Cannon	all-state tackle
Russell Williams	all-state half-back
Richy Vincent	all-state center
Larry Perryman	honorable mention

The outstanding point of the squad was the "team" as was especially shown at the win over White Pine, 14-6. The coaches agreed that their boys deserved high praise for this victory.

Most Valuable Player

Bernard Cannon was selected the most valuable player of the 1956-57 football team. Coaches and teammates could always depend upon him to do his best, and to be where he was most needed. Bernard put forth great effort and ability to help the team, and he always displayed outstanding sportsmanship. With these qualities our coaching staff considered Bernard a most valuable player and therefore most deserving of this award.

The junior varsity squad was the largest and, in many ways, the best Basic has had. Eighteen of the boys moved to the varsity team before the season ended.

There were four captains during the season including Lynn Leany, Bobby Warren, Steve Sindlein, and Vic Vincent.

The coaches believed with earlier separate practices more wins would have been turned out.

Especially good was the Las Vegas meet for which the boys are commended on a very close game.

Most important is the valuable experience that can build another championship team.

The Basic Wolves, with only one returning starter, co-captain Ron Mich'l, began their season not expected to win 10 games of the 19-game schedule; the team that went onto the court for the first Boulder game, our conference opener, was green, but as each game passed, their growing experience became apparent.

January 18 and 19, for the first time in our school's history, Basic defeated Lincoln and White Pine on their home courts.

Basic won 7 out of the 9 regular season games, including a 53-41 triumph over Las Vegas, the first victory over the neighboring Wildcats since 1947—ten long years. One week later, the Wolves dropped a heart-breaker to the Wildcats, 53-50 in the overtime.

In the Southern Zone tournaments, the Wolves won the first night, lost the second and then came back with flying colors to beat Boulder City and to win a trip to the state tournaments for the third straight year. While in Reno, Basic was the only Southern Zone team to win a game with a 58-54 win over Reno. Ronnie Mich'l was named to the all-state team, the only player from the south to win the honor. Ronnie Mich'l was the leading scorer for the season, with a 21.4 average, including high scores in our major wins. Russ Williams was second with a 9.9 average, and Hal Foster was third with 6.7 average. Russ Williams led with free-shot percentage at 73.8 percent, Foster second with 72.6 percent and Mich'l third, 64.7 percent.

Ron Mich'l and Russell Williams, seniors, were rewarded for outstanding talents by their selection as co-captains of the 1957 basketball team.

Ron, 6'5", besides this honor, was named both to all-zone and all-state teams. He was the season's leading scorer with a 21.4 average.

Russell's brilliant season of play gave him the season's free-shot percentage high.

The Wolves racked up an impressive season with the efforts of not only these two important team members, but with the unified drive of every individual on the squad.

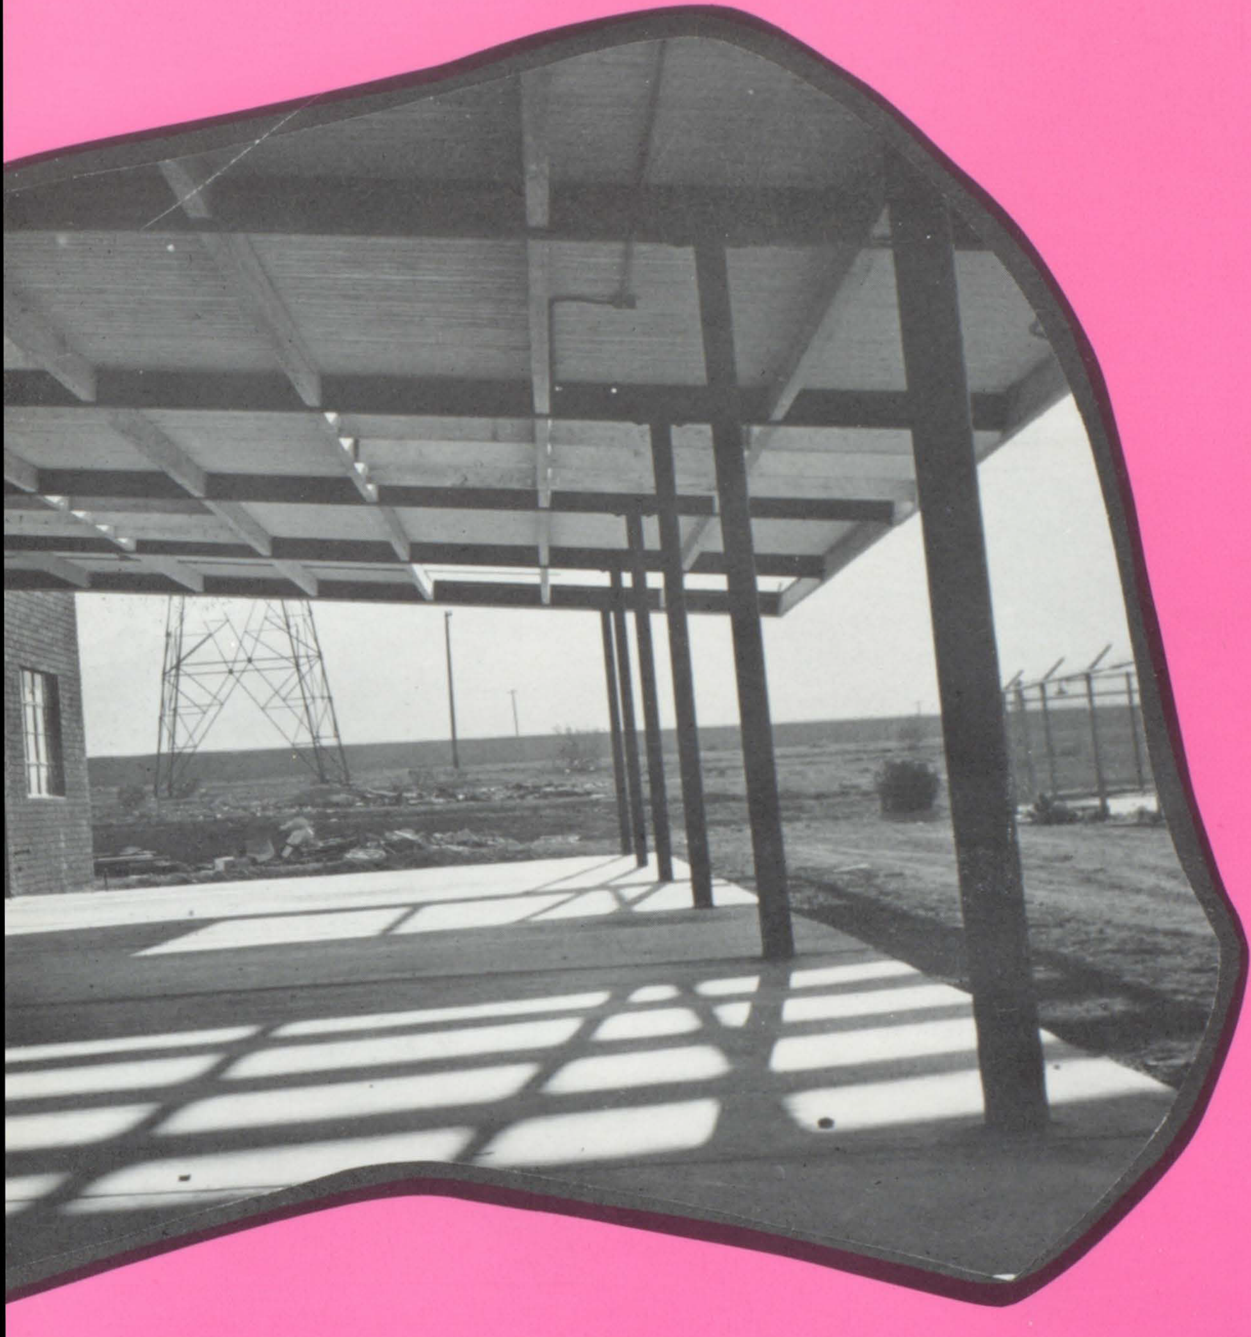
activities

Most of the school's extra-curricular activities take place during our sixth period and the inspirational work of the students is fully released in the fields of newspaper printing, drama productions, annual publishing and various other projects.

Basic has a full agenda of scheduled 'activities' . . . for the entertainment of the students . . . junior prom, senior ball . . . junior and senior play . . . homecoming and, of course, the newly initiated drill team, Basic's Desertaires.

Every phase of interest that a student may possess is given full opportunity to be developed into something valuable through our activities . . . and we are fully aware of any leadership abilities that we may have by our participation in them. The culmination of four years of dreams, hopes and fund-raising projects came into being in 1957—our Youth Center.

The community can now provide its youth with the most modern and up-to-date facilities for enjoyment and activity. We look upon the newly constructed building with pride and satisfaction, for it was through the efforts of every individual in Henderson that it is now a reality.



Activity and duty are not to be found by the roadside; one must await them on the threshold, ready to bid them enter at the moment of passing, and they pass every day.

Every year a few fortunate junior boys and girls are given the opportunity to learn more about the workings of American democracy through Boys' and Girls' State.

Nine juniors attended the model government sessions held in Reno, supported by funds from local organizations.

The American Legion is the sponsoring group of this honorary model government system, which provides several students with a once-in-a-lifetime chance to acquire a deep appreciation for the freedom that we, as Americans, enjoy.

Delegates attending the conference were from every school in the state, therefore cementing relationships between schools . . . and perhaps bettering our school's government through comparison of ideas.

Sparking the basketball season and pep assemblies during that time of year was the recently-initiated Poster Club.

Brightly colored banners and signs were made by the group for the school activities, also.

Heading this enthusiastic and spirited group was Cookie Schreck, who originated the club.

Homecoming at Basic High—a memorable event for alumni and students, who attended the festivities en masse to the pep rally and bonfire, then to the game with Rancho.

The climax of the evening was the coronation of the Homecoming Queen Maggie Sendlein, and court: Colleen Leavitt, senior; Kathy Slavin, junior; Mary French, sophomore; and Teddie Fields, freshman. The final activity of the evening was the strikingly decorated multi-purpose room dance, in honor of returned alumni.

What would school spirit be without the cheerleaders? Basic High is known throughout the area for its high spirit and good sportsmanship, and the leaders of our cheering section are responsible for this. The pep assemblies are the initial movement for the big support we give the teams at all games. Here, Basic high school students acquire great sportsmanship that carries over with them as alum citizens of Henderson, who also give their full support.

Miss Claudia Johnson, cheerleader sponsor, and sport enthusiast herself, lends greatly to our teams' athletic motto: "You support the team, and we'll support you!"

The junior varsity cheerleaders this year conducted a very active cheering schedule at all junior varsity games. Their enthusiasm was also evident during several pep assemblies.

Headed by Nancy Neise, the four girls attractively added much spirit to football and basketball seasons.

A three-act mystery entitled "Double Doors" was presented by the seniors during November and directed by Mr. John Beatty.

A highly-successful production, featuring Andrea Sewell, Sandra Neighbors, Donna Hill and Jeff Blake, was the result of four weeks of strenuous rehearsals to perfect the climatic effect of the chilling plot.

In traditional style, the seniors presented a truly entertaining and spine-tingling "Double Doors." Clara Hildebrand and Bartis Nordloh were this year's student directors.

A three-act farce, "Tons of Money," was the theatrical choice of the juniors for their yearly play, which turned out very successfully.

Terry Thompson, Sharon Staley, and other juniors proved to be exceptionally talented at this first attempt in the field of acting, and provided an entertaining evening for a crowded gym.

Mr. John Beatty directed the play assisted by Kathy Salvin and Mona Hartle.
